MONDAY 12 AUGUST

Day begins at 9:45am with Welcome to Country and Welcome to our Leaders Conference.

Keynote: Dis-connect and re-connect – how to unplug, unwind and think clearly in the digital age.

Productive leaders create habits of activity AND inactivity. They know when to use technology, and also when to unplug. It's about rhythms, patterns, and making space to focus on what matters most.

Workshop 1 EMAIL NINJA - how to take back control of your email inbox

Get your inbox to zero and keep on top of the huge volume of emails that come your way.

Workshop 2 S.P.A.C.E HABITS

Many of us feel busy and distracted. Both leaders and students need to set culture and navigate the positive and negative aspects of constant connection.

Discover how to make S.P.A.C.E in the digital age, using this personal productivity framework:

- Set limits,
- Predictable patterns,
- Assign rest before work,
- Concrete relationships, and
- Embrace silence

Day concludes around 5pm.

7pm Conference dinner at The Haus Restaurant, Hahndorf

Conference Leaders

Daniel Sih

and

Tim Hynes

Daniel Sih and Tim Hynes are the founding directors of Spacemakers®, a specialised productivity and time management consulting group for busy leaders.

Daniel has 15 years of experience working in senior leadership and strategic consulting roles across Australia and the U.K. He is a skilled communicator, trainer, coach and blogger. He has worked as a Physiotherapist and Project Manager, leading various public health services in Tasmania. He is also an accredited Top 5 StrengthsFinder coach with the South Pacific Strengths Network.

Daniel has 3 children, 24 chickens and enjoys bush walking.

Tim is a qualified Health Information Manager, Project Manager, and Change Manager, with over 15 years of experience in senior leadership roles. He has lead the rollout of numerous digital projects in industries such as health, tertiary education, utilities and industry. Tim has served as the Vice President of MND Australia (Motor Neurone Disease), and is now chair of the Risdon Vale Bike Collective. He is an accredited Top 5 StrengthsFinder coach with the South Pacific Strength Network.

Tim has 2 children, plays water-basketball, and is obsessed with coffee.

As strategic consultants, Tim and Daniel have worked extensively with schools, colleges and universities. They have worked with state, private, and Catholic education schools to simplify the way they develop and execute a one-page school improvement plan.

Email Ninja is their signature course, assisting thousands of leaders, managers and teachers to master their email inbox across Australia. Email Ninja is also an e-Learning course, with 6,000+ students accessing learning through www.emailninja.com.au

You can learn more about Tim and Daniel by visiting their website: www.spacemakers.com.au

TUESDAY 13 AUGUST

ABSA ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Workshop 3 LIST ASSASSIN and PRIORITY SAMURAI HABITS

Leaders need high-level skills to manage complexity in the digital age, including personal productivity systems to reduce stress, increase planning and maximise creativity.

Discover the CORD Habits (Capture, Organise, Review, Do)

- Capture ideas on the run to reduce stress
- Organise a two-level list (projects and tasks)
- Review your lists weekly and plan your week
- Do your most important tasks each day

Learn how to choose and use a To-Do List App to suit your context

Workshop 4 PERSONAL WELL-BEING - A PHYSICAL BREAK

Workshop 5 WORK-LIFE BALANCE + Q & A + CONCLUSION

The S.P.A.C.E. framework of personal productivity, including time for table-conversations, and personal application (related to self, to staff, and to students).

Questions around use of digital technology and students, and strategies that work / don't work in the boarding school context.

CONCLUSION

Day concludes at 3pm

Adelaide Hills Convention Centre
